

DESERT VIEW BIBLE CHURCH

GLOBAL

Supported Missions

Andy & Margaret Andersen work with Africa Inland Missions in the Tabora region of Tanzania to minister the Gospel of Jesus Christ to the predominantly Muslim Nyamwezi people. facebook.com/margaret.m.andersen

Mike and Stacy Wiebe lived in India for ten years, where they planted a church, Wellspring Fellowship, in the city of Bangalore. Due to government restrictions, they had to leave India in 2018. They have since been coaching the new pastor and leaders of Wellspring, and are transitioning to become church planting catalysts, providing training and coaching for church planters in global cities.

Dan and Cathy Davis reach out to victims both infected and affected by HIV/AIDS. He Intends Victory sponsors support groups around the world to encourage and bring the hope of Jesus Christ to the over 39 million people infected with HIV/AIDS. (<http://heintendsvictory.org/>)

Tim and Joy Watson After serving in Germany at the Black Forest Academy for the last decade, Joy has been asked to be the head of a school for Christian and non-Christian children of missionaries and international technology executives in Eastern Europe. Tim will continue to serve with World Venture, counseling in the areas of abuse.

Langham Partnership (formerly John Stott Ministries) strengthens the theological training of pastors and leaders, educates Bible scholars, and provides evangelical literature in other languages. (<http://us.langham.org/>)

Terry and Jeannie Dalrymple use Community Health Evangelism (CHE) to equip communities to identify issues and mobilize resources to achieve positive, sustainable change. Lives and communities around the world are transformed as people come to Christ and work together to address local needs. (<http://chenetwork.org/>)

Paul Madson
Global Training Network

“The most effective way to disciple a nation is by training the local pastors and leaders.” Through intensive, on-site conferences, GTN serves pastors by providing teaching and training in essential doctrine, vital Christian character, and practical ministry skills.

